Nadine did so much good here on earth that God let her grace our presence for some time. She was a school secretary at Whitney when we moved here and was like having a kind and loving extra aunt or grandmum. She did so many other good works and her sweet smile is something that will be missed but always a memory that makes us smile. She had a great sense of humor and great common sense that inspired many. Eve and Bob Hill

Nadine was the most pleasant and enjoyable person to be around. Her wit and humor always had me laughing. She was kind and considerate, and one of the nicest ladies that walked this Earth. I will always remember that smiling face. I remember her and Ruthie Chotkevys sitting at the kitchen table laughing so hard that their eyes were tearing up. I will miss that cheerful attitude. I know that her and Ruthie are catching up on things right now. My condolences to Ron, Rich, Lori and the rest of her extended family. She will be greatly missed. Cookie Norris Poulsen
