When I think of Nolan I see his beautiful happy face. When he smiled his whole face smiled! And now I picture him always happy like that, free from his Earthly conditions so his spirit can soar unrestrained! Your family is in my thoughts and prayers. Love you all! Very sorry to read about the loss of your dear son. It is so hard to lose a child. Life is such a precious gift and yet so short-lived for the time we exist. We are comforted by the hope of the resurrection. God holds out this wonderful hope for all those in the grave.. At John 11:25 Jesus said "I AM THE RESURRECTION AND THE LIFE. HE THAT EXERCISES FAITH IN ME, EVEN THOUGH HE DIES, WILL COME TO LIFE." Mark 5:38-43 is one of the nine accounts of ones who were resurrected. What a blessed reason to hope in God! (John 5:28,29) The gift of your memories of Nolan will bring you great joy and turn into a treasure. You and yours will receive strength through prayer to God, you will feel comfort by the loving concern of your God-fearing friends, and you will be uplifted by studying God's Word. Nolan I didn't know you but your Gramma Nancy told me all about you. She was and is so proud of you and she will miss you so much. She told me what a great boy you were and how you helped her in the kitchen during this past Thanksgiving. Now you live with God's Angels in His great heaven. When you see your Gramma Nancy looking up to the sky blow her a kiss so that it lands on her cheek instead of a tear. Love and peace to your family, Nolan.Jane Lugar

Thompson Family: I am so sorry to hear of Nolan's passing. I have wonderful memories of him from Whitney Elementary. I feel as though I was blessed to have the opportunity to work Nolan. I can remember how happy he was to make the hand mixer work by hitting a button switch during cooking time. He always knew where the stuffed animals were kept in the class because those were his favorite. I still have the tote with Nolan's hand prints (as flowers) that was given to me as a gift. I just used it recently! They say we touch so many lives and I can say that Nolan touched mine. God Bless Carleen Olejarczyk
