I also never new your name, but I definitely knew you from the time I moved into Amherst Commons. I also used to see you and your two dogs, at later times just April, your beloved German Shepard who passed a few years ago. Although we never spoke in person at lengths, you always waved to me and said hello and always accompanied it with a smile. I was sad to hear this week of your passing. I wish you solice and peace. You left the world a much better place because of your kindness and friendliness to all others. Your neighbor, Chris

I didn't know your name....I just knew you and your love for your dogs...especially April. We passed each other walking our dogs so many times...You always waved and said " hi!" You took such good care of her...I was so sad that I never saw her again after you told me you were taking her for her last treatment. I never saw you again either Paul....and always looked for and wished you would have gotten another puppy to keep you company. I'm sorry I won't see you again....may you see your puppies again now...may you rest in peace.Dyan
