To Helen's Family Like so many of her friends and family, it was a blow for us to learn that your dear Helen passed away. Your sorrow and grief are unimaginable. It is our hope you know she will be remembered by so many so far away. The news of her passing brought many memories immediately to mind. Many that have escaped my aging mind until now. What I would like to share with you is the fact that our family will continue to keep you in our thoughts, in our prayers and in our vigils. We always have and always will. Although Helen's family and friends have countless memories of her life, mine, although fewer in number, are nonetheless filled with joy because I have known her, and can recall the simplicity of the smile on her peaceful face.##imported-begin##Darrell Smith and Family##imported-end##

We are so sorry to hear of Helen's passing. We will miss the neighborly chats we had when taking our dog Tucker for walks and stopping to talk with Helen. Helen was such a fiendly person. Your family will be in our prayers.##imported-begin##Terry, Chris, Hannah, & Sarah Chamberlain##imported-end##
