Eric, remember a young Charlie and myself (almost thirty years ago) getting into a fight while playing football in your backyard? One of the funniest things about it was that your Mother captured the whole event with a VHS tape recorder. "By the neck"... I'll always remember that. We're all with y'all...

Aunt Karen, you were so vivacious and I'll always remember your laugh. You did find humor in many things and I remember we laughed a lot at the absurdities of life. We had such great times and lots of good home cooked food at Grandma Helen and Grandpa Joe's house and especially during the Christmas gift exchanges when Grandpa Joe was alive. You were extremely devoted to your family and your children and had such a sensitive heart for animals - just like all we Popek's do. Your passing was too soon and is still a shock. May you find peace in heaven with your loved ones who have passed before you. With loving memories, Nancy Lynn
