I'm really sorry for the loss of my old friend from 6th grade through high school. We spent a lot of time at each other's house as our parents were great friends too. My favorite memory of Dick was catching a game of his in the Falls little league. I don't know what kind of illegal pitch he was throwing but my thumb was twice the normal size after that game. I think he struck out all but two batters. Man that was fun. I haven't seen him since high school but I've been carrying that memory around for a long time waiting to share. His dad drove a truck all over Ohio and I guess beyond and I don't think he saw that game either. RIP brother.
