Annette Katherine Pojman

JUL 25, 1942 - JUL 4, 2018

Annette Katherine Pojman (nee Ziemnik), age 75, passed away suddenly and went to heaven on July 4, 2018. Annette was the daughter of John Ziemnik and Anna K. Ziemnik (Novorsky). Annette was the wife of 53 years to John William Pojman who survives. She was the mother of 5 children, Steven Cahill (Patty), Gerald Cahill, John R. Pojman (Tassy), Pamela Loy (Tye) and Joseph Pojman (Renee). Dear grandmother and great grandmother of many. Annette was a tried and true Cleveland Indians fan from early years through the richer more recent times. Annette was also an avid book reader and animal lover. She was a stay at home mom for many years while her kids were in school. Annette was the Columbia Hot Stove T-Ball president for many years, as well as coached/managed for many years. "Mom" to many, she always volunteered, supported, and attended her kids' school and sports activities. After her kids went off to college, she returned to the work force by working for May Co./Kauffmans/Macy's in North Olmsted for many years. She most recently retired from IMT Marketing Company in Brunswick after a brief illness. VISITATION 1-3 PM AND 5-7 PM SUNDAY, JULY 8, 2018 at JARDINE FUNERAL HOME, 15822 PEARL ROAD, STRONGSVILLE. Funeral Mass 10 AM on Monday at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, Columbia Station. Interment Royalton Road Cemetery. www.jardinefh.com

So sorry for the loss to the family but awesome memories from our family. Annette was so very kind and loving to our special daughter especially for 2 years of letting her play T ball. All the time we lived in Columbia she, John and family were amazing friends and now God has her in his kingdom and being surrounded with much love ❤️
