Uncle Lowell was a great man. When I was little he made me the best rocking horse, which my son, his great great nephew now enjoys! He will be missed.

Patricia Kuhn posted:

My husband, Harry, valued his friendship with Lowell for many years. After meeting Lowell, myself, I could understand why they were good friends. Lowell was a very kind, giving individual who would always give a helping hand anyway he could. He was an upstanding citizen. His family will miss him everyday. My deepest sympathies to them.
