I'll always have the best memories and importantly examples to share. A true example of an entrepreneur, solid work ethic, honesty, always willing to understand, to try, to learn and to share. He treated my family with the same respect. Uncle Milt will be missed but what he demonstrated, his guidance and our collection of moments will remain.

most of the time when the saris family visited it was almost always a life changing experience. even as a young boy i looked just as forward to seeing my uncle milt as seeing my wonderful cousins Doug and Lisa. As years past i looked more forward to chatting with milt about lifes ups and downs. He was a driving influence in me doing my chef apprenticeship and my only regret was not having the opportunity to work in a kitchen with him even for 1 day, He had an energy about him and i also remember my father James Lyttle and my mom were always so excited to visit with the entire family, so many wonderful memories to last forever...my sincere support and love to aunt Joyce ,Doug and Lisa during this difficult time... I will never forget what a special man and what a special gift he imparted to me with his love for cooking and restaurants. Love Drew Lyttle
