The loss of Annie puts us in a place of sadness and loss that we cannot repair or understand which leaves us in a very heartbroken state. The good news is that I know that Bob and Annie were people of great faith and they and we all know that she is definitely in paradise with God at this very moment. Where else could a person with so much love and dedication, to her family and friends, belong or go. There is no doubt in my mind that we will all be together again in that place of no tears and no pain where everyone truly loves one another more than themselves. Heaven has finally obtained the person they have been longing for who has the best laugh and loving personality that God ever made. We will miss her for now although we shall relish the thought that she is in the embrace and care of our Lord right now and I am sure her rewards shall be great. We will NEVER LET GO of her memories until we meet again!God Bless Bob, Annie, and family, always!Cinderella and Andy Aron

Deborah Decker lit a candle in honor of Ann.

Annie has been a dear friend for many years. She has brought joy and light to so many patients that she worked with as a dedicated PTA. I have had the joy of working with her at Pleasantview Care Center, and she was one of the best PTA's I have ever worked with! She is beautiful inside and out, and I will sorely miss her. As a Christian, I have the joy of knowing that I will see her again in heaven where she has already gone to be united with our resurrected Lord and Savior!
