Jerry will be missed by everyone. He was a gentleman that loved life. Dedicated to family and friends, loved his years in Strongsville. Will always remember Jerry would never miss the City Clubs Breakfast on the bridge, he was always the first one in line to say hello to friends and neighbors. Just a great man that I sure will miss. I bet he is playing basketball with the angels. God Bless you Jerry.

The world lost one of the most decent human beings it's ever known. Loving husband, father, grandfather, uncle and friend. If you ever had the pleasure of meeting him or better yet, getting to know him, you would consider yourself fortunate for having the opportunity. God is smiling now because he finally has the right man to organize his heavenly recreation center to make sure every basketball gaming is running on schedule and someone to maintain the angelic lawns with the most perfectly mowed grass with the straightest lines and cut to the perfect depth. The Angels are already tired trying to keep up with his pace.
