Dear Uncle Erwin, Laurel, Brian, and families: Sending lots of love and support from Atlanta. Like all, we were shocked and saddened to learn about Aunt Kathy, but we watched the steaming service, prayed, and will remember lots of fond memories of her as we are with you in spirit during this time. With love, Tim, Krystin, and Kiernan

I am very saddened to hear of Kathy's passing. My sympathy goes out to her family. Although we didn't see each other much in the past several years, Kathy and I were friends since childhood. I can particularly remember all those "garage" sleepovers where a group of us would bring our sleeping bags and bed down in her garage. Not much sleeping but a lot of giggling. Rest In Peace, my Friend! Janet (Bernazzoli) Dunham
