I have known Arlene for many years through her church, Parma South Presbyterian. We both were part of the Caring Committee. She was always the most pleasant and cheerful woman, and willing to help out wherever she could. I missed being able to visit with her recently as we always had a nice conversation. I will miss her smiling face.

I had the pleasure to work with Arlene for a number of years at Key Bank, and always found her to be caring, compassionate, helpful and friendly. A wonderful person to work with, always uplifting, positive and seeing the good in people. Fortunate to have had Arlene as a friend. Will be truly missed.
