Eric and Family, so very sorry to hear about Clay. I so enjoyed working with him and hearing his stories and philosophies. Clay was never at a loss for words. He loved Mary so, and always bragged about her. I am sure he is at peace now that they are together again.! My sincere thoughts and prayers are with all of you . Hugs, Susan Sevy

Adam and I lived next door to Clay and Mary when they lived in Hunting Meadows - They on Fawn Circle, and we on Deerfield Drive. We have many fond memories of them both. We especially remember Clay washing his cars EVERY WEEK, and we loved to hear him talk with pride about his two Newfoundland dogs Odin and Pandy. After they moved from Fawn Circle we frequently ran into Clay at Sears where he worked in the appliance sales department. I remember Clay as one who loved to talk. He and Mary were good neighbors. Mary even came over to our house to stay with our older four children when our youngest Frank was born. My condolences to Eric and his family. I am sorry for your loss of Dad and Grandpa. I know Clay and Mary are happy again together in heaven. Marty and Adam Zachlin
