Adele was a kind, thoughtful person whom I meet many years ago when my daughter, Janine who was 17 or 18 at the time, introduced me to her. Over the years I bought a couple of Loganberger (sp?) baskets from her and marveled at the attention she paid to my grandson Gabriel. Her kindness and generosity will be missed by me and many others. Memory Eternal.

Adele was a GREAT neighbor when the family moved to Pennsylvania. She introduced me to Longaberger baskets, 60+ still adorn my house. She threw great parties and was the hostess with the mostess!!! Most importantly... I learned what it was like living with diabetes which prompted me to become a Certified Diabetes Educator. Thank you for being my friend ❤️
