My father complicated man hard life growing up but met a wonderfully woman. She gave him 7 children and was a wonderful mom 5 star. He did not know how to be a father did not have a role model. Never said how proud he was or that he loved us. But still dad - may not have agreed but he was dad. Give mom a hug she was the best.

Martina, I'm not sure who it serves (other than yourself) for you to take jabs at your father's character after he has passed on (while conveniently omitting the countless number of positive things he did for YOU over the years), but it really is in poor taste to post the rambling mess that you did. Shame on you! Frank Koran Jr. was A GOOD MAN! Hundreds of his former students, colleagues, friends, and plenty of his family members know this. If you weren't so busy trying to justify your own highly questionable behavior, then maybe you would see what all of those other People that I mentioned see.

It is with a heavy heart that I send my sincere condolences to the Koran family. Frank was a good friend. I remember the good times we had teaching together at Valley Forge High School and our drives together to the VF Retired Teachers Luncheons. I also have fond memories of spending time with Frank and Rita when we lived in South Carolina. They will both be missed very much. May they be in our Lord's Holy Kingdom. God be with you my friend Frank. Ron Tvorik

Grandpa was a Marine, a husband, a teacher, a father, a grandfather, a great-grandfather, a brother, an uncle, and a friend. He earned the right to fill all of those roles. He filled all of those roles proudly and did the best job he could while filling all of those roles as well. He has had a positive influence on countless others over the years. Personally, I learned a great deal from him. I know that he will be greatly missed by many and I am very proud to have had the privilege of being his grandson for over 41 years. I celebrate, knowing that he has been reunited with the love of his life, my grandmother. May they rest together in love and peace.-Anthony L. Webb Jr.
