We had great times visiting in Ohio or meeting up at Myrtle Beach with our families as I was growing up. We'll miss Aunt Virginia and her sense of humor.

I have so many Aunt Virginia memories. When we visited her over Thanksgiving last month, she reminded me of how when I was a toddler we used to sit down at her Kitchen table and have conversations. She said she enjoyed those conversations more than she did with many adults. She may have always exaggerated that last part of the story but I loved it so much. There was another time when I was around 5ish when I rode my Big Wheel around Meigs Boulevard all by myself because the big kids could. Uncle Mike was so mad! Or at least he tried to be. And I remember Aunt Virginia trying to understand my journey (or at least acting like she did)! She was funny and kind and wise. She was special. I will miss you, Aunt Virginia. We all will. ❤️

Virginia has been a great sister in law, friend & wonderful aunt to our family for years. I'll miss our visits & long kitchen table talks as we laughed that we were still in our pi's till afternoon. I've loved her since we first met when I was 16 & then we both became young mothers as our kids grew up together. We miss her already. ❤️ Rob & Anna Marie Talley
