So it was a year ago yesterday that you were laid to rest. I still think about you and the joy you brought not only to my life but to the lives of the many people that knew you. I do not think that we will ever understand why you left us so soon and abruptly, but I do know that i will never forget you. Some of the best memories that I have are the summers that you were my baseball coach. You were FUN, energetic, and absolutely hilarious! We honestly knew that you cared about us. It is still hard on many of the people that were closest to you, but I pray that they feel comfort knowing that you lived an amazing life, and that you are now in a better place. I know my dad misses you and all of the times that you guys shared together. Just know that no matter how much time elapses, you will never be forgotten, and your memory will live on. Miss you Terry.

Well said, Dawn. Kevin, you brought feelings that haven't surfaced in 13 years by just your words. Always knew you'd turn out ok. God bless.

To the Leighty family: Terry had asked me to "FRIEND HIM" on Facebook. I was so happy to hear from him, as I am one of his childhood classmates and friends. He was always so enthusiastic for life. The day he became my facebook friend, I was thrilled that he remembered me, and I shared some of our school antics and memories with my husband. And reading his tributes from his friends, he only got better as he grew into adulthood. I am sorry that we hadn't kept up our friendship. Now it is time to confess..... my girlfriend and I were the ones who TP'ed his yard one cold Friday night when we were in high school. May your memories of this fine man always be with you. Terry, your footprint on this world will remain forever, in the hearts of those who love you!!! Sincerely, Gloria Kerro Patrick Greenville, SC Parma High School Class of 1965

I had the pleasure of working with Terry at Yellowbook for four years. In that short time I never saw Terry without a smile on his face. I always admired the care he took and the relationships he had with his customers. I often found myself finding excuses to go out with Terry for the day because I knew we would be laughing. Thanks for the laughs and good times Terry, it was an honor to work with you. You will be missed.

I would like to extent my deepest sympathy and sincere condolences to Terry's family. As a former college classmate and basketball teammate of Terry, I have such fond memories of him from his crazy stunts after basketball practice to enjoying an evening with Terry watching WWF wrestling at the Cleveland Areana. Terry always had us root and cheer for the "bad" guys at the wrestling matches which got us alot of attention. I spoke with Terry a few months ago and he was still the same "genuine", fun-loving guy who I knew in college. I was blessed to have gotten to know and become friends with Terry. "D.J" Aldinger

Terry was our daughter's softball coach at Holy Name. He was genuine in his devotion and dedication to both the program and the girls who played for him. He helped these young women learn many valuable life lessons both on and off the field, values that they will most likely carry throughout their lifetime. We extend our sincerest sympathies to Terry's family and closest friends. Daniel and Denice Moderick
