Theresa Noonan-Cooke, 78, passed away on March 22, 2023, surrounded by her family.

After graduating from high school, she pursued her passion for nursing. Theresa married Thomas Cooke, the love of her life, in 1993. Together, they built a beautiful life filled with love, laughter, and adventure.

Theresa had a successful career as a nurse, working tirelessly to provide compassionate care to her patients. She was known for her kind heart, her gentle touch, and her unwavering commitment to helping others. Her colleagues admired her for her dedication and professionalism, and her patients loved her for her warmth and empathy.

Theresa had a special place in her heart for golden retriever dogs, and her love for them was evident to anyone who knew her. She often spoke about her beloved dog, Happy, who was more than just a pet to her - Happy was a cherished member of her family. Theresa's eyes would light up as she talked about Happy's playful antics and loyal nature. Her love for Happy was a testament to her kind and nurturing spirit, as she showered her furry companion with affection and attention. Theresa's legacy of kindness and love will continue to shine through the memories of her love for Happy and all the joy they shared together. Her warmth, kindness, and compassion touched the hearts of many, and her legacy will live on through the countless lives she touched.

She is survived by her loving husband Tom, daughter of the late John and Margaret Noonan. Dear sister of Kathleen Neiger (Ed) and Patricia Uher (Larry). Loving aunt of 9. She will be deeply missed by all who knew her.
