Bill Velioniiskis posted:

I have fond memories of Betty and her husband Jim, who was my boss at Davy McKee for almost twenty years. Since they moved to Strongsville, I would oftentimes see her and her sister at our Rec center for coffee after Mass. The last time I saw Betty was at Danberry about nine or so months ago. It was just by chance because I was visiting my aunt there. We had a nice visit. My wife and I are in the bereavement choir at St. Joseph and will be honored to be at the Mass for her. God rest her soul, Bill Velioniiskis
