Robert "Bob" Swartz Jr.

DEC 10, 1947 - JUL 24, 2025

Robert "Bob" Swartz Jr., age 77, a lifelong resident of Cleveland, Ohio, passed away on July 24, 2025. Bob was born on December 10, 1947, to the late Robert Swartz Sr. and Elizabeth Swartz. He was the cherished husband of Cathy Swartz, with whom he shared 38 years of marriage filled with love, laughter, and unwavering support.

Bob's life was marked by his dedication to his family. He was a loving father to Justin M. Swartz, Tina Baker (Phil) and the late Michael A. Swartz, who will remember him as a guiding light and a source of endless encouragement. Bob's legacy continues through his grandchildren, Noelle Baker, Amber Roark, and Russell Baker, and his great-grandchildren, Cayden, Isabelle, and Jameson. His role as a grandfather was one he cherished deeply, and he embraced every moment with joy and pride.

His siblings, the late Alva Masek (Dave; deceased) and Dorothy Jacobson (Ron; deceased), held a special place in his heart. He is also survived by his sister-in-law, Deb Will, and his nieces and nephews, Joe Masek (Laura), DJ Jacobson (Amy), Angela Jacobson, Theresa Reed (Lisa), and Tammy Haas (Dan), all of whom will miss his presence dearly.

Bob spent over 35 years on the road as a professional truck driver, a career that allowed him to meet people from all walks of life. His work ethic and dedication to his profession were unparalleled, and he was respected by his colleagues and peers. Upon retirement, he relished in the freedom to indulge in his many interests.

A man of many passions, Bob was known for his love of music, sports, and recreational activities. He was a die-hard Cleveland Browns fan, never wavering in his support for his home team. Bob also found great pleasure in golfing and bowling, often sharing these experiences with friends and family. His ability to turn any occasion into a fun one was one of his most endearing qualities.

I knew Bob when he was a teenager back in the 60's. I thought back then he was going to be a famous musician, but he chose a different path. I hope he finds eternal peace now. God bless you Bob. Ex brother-in-law Dennis Marko

Dear Cathy and Justin, We are so deeply saddened to hear of your loss. Both you and Bob were so kind and engaging! You felt like family from the moment we met you on the Holy Name Basketball Court! Bob continued to call and check in with Trent over the years and the men shared updates on our boys! Bob will definitely be missed and forever remembered. Please know we are here for you, Cathy. May you find comfort in family and friends ~ Trent, Michelle, and Bryce Lane
