Bradley Wilkison

NOV 6, 1970 - SEP 26, 2025

Bradley Richard Wilkison, age 54, passed away on September 26, 2025. Brad was a devoted husband, father, son, brother, and friend. He loved his family dearly and found joy in the time they spent together—attending rock shows with his son Alex, cheering on the Cleveland Browns with both sons, having long discussions about football with his son Matthew, enjoying trivia nights with the family, and quiet evenings watching true crime shows with his wife. He also cherished the companionship of the family dog, Finley. A lifelong fan of Cleveland sports, rock music, and especially the band KISS, Brad's passion for life was infectious. He also treasured his 1970 Mustang and the memories it held. Brad enjoyed his work as a Data Analyst for Progressive Insurance, where he dedicated many years of his career. His colleagues will remember him for his hard work, sharp mind and work ethic.

He is survived by his loving wife, Beth, and his treasured sons, Matthew and Alex. He is also survived by his parents, Richard and Donna Wilkison; his sisters, Becky Wilkison (Tim Geary) and Chris Wilkison (Garth Riley); and his beloved nieces and nephews—Sarah, Phillip, Andrea, Katherine, Connor, Jack, Brian, Lauren, Avery, and Arianna.

Brad will be remembered for his laughter, his loyalty, his love of music and sports, and above all, his unwavering devotion to his family. His presence will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Visiting hours will be held on Wednesday, October 1, 2025, from 3:00–7:00 PM at Jardine Funeral Home, 1588 Pearl Road, Strongsville, OH.

Funeral services will be held on Thursday, October 2, 2025, at 11:00 AM at Strongsville United Methodist Church, 13500 Royalton Road, Strongsville, OH.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made in Brad's name to their favorite charity, Show Hope, at <https://showhope.org>.

Brad , the son of my dear friends, Donna and Richard, was a quiet person who was a devoted son, husband, and brother.I always remember his lovely smile when I chatted with him at many family gatherings. His heroic fight for life exemplified a fighting spirit and his untimely death is a tragedy. He is now in heaven with his heavenly family. My sympathy and condolences to his wife, Beth, and his sons, Matthew and Alex.Love,Donna Casciola

Debbie Stefko lit a candle in honor of Bradley.

I will always remember Brad as a dedicated and caring coworker who contributed so much to our team's success. He was an integral part of our quarterly reviews, always ensuring we had everything we needed to make our jobs easier. His kindness, hard work, and presence will be deeply missed. During this difficult time, I hope you can find comfort in cherishing the memories you shared with him and the impact he had on all of us.Sincerely,Debbie Stefko

For the extended family that lives in Pittsburgh and the western Pennsylvania area, having Brad as a loyal and devoted Cleveland Browns fan was sacrilege! I am sure that the funny cards sent back and forth about the Steelers and the Browns kept the post office in business for a long time. We will all certainly miss Brad and the great addition that he was to our family.
