Dan Clark

MAY 29, 1935 - NOV 21, 2025

Dan Clark, passed away peacefully on November 21, 2025, in his hometown of Cleveland, Ohio, at the age of 90. Born on May 29, 1935, to the late Albert and Margaret Clark (nee Mahnke), Dan's life was a testament to the enduring power of love, family, and hard work.

Dan's journey through life was shared with his beloved wife of 72 years, Phyllis Clark (nee Kramer), who was his steadfast partner in every adventure and challenge. Together, they raised a family that included their children Dan Clark (Barbara), Kathleen Gumbish (the late Ronald), Patrick Clark, and the late Craig Clark. Dan was a pillar of strength and a source of wisdom for his family, and his legacy continues through his brother Alan Clark (Linda), his brother Donald Clark (Marge), his sister Michele Akins (Robert), the late William Clark (the late Jean) and the late Marilyn Dawson (the late Wes).

Dan's professional life was marked by his remarkable ability to master intricate skills. A self-taught watchmaker and auto mechanic, he dedicated 40 years of service to East Ohio Gas/Dominion, where his expertise and dedication were highly valued. His colleagues knew him as a man who could be relied upon, both for his technical abilities and his genuine camaraderie.

The light of Dan's life shone brightly through his role as a grandfather and great-grandfather. His eight grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren were the recipients of his timeless stories. Each of them carries a piece of Dan's heart and his lessons of kindness, resilience, and curiosity.

Dan's passing leaves a void in the hearts of those who knew him, but his memory will be honored and cherished forever. His was a life well-lived, full of moments that touched the lives of many.
