“ Lori and family,
It's been a long time since I've seen you, but I remember you guys fondly and was honored to be part of his care team. I am so sorry to hear that he passed. You are in my thoughts and prayers. He was one tough guy and will be missed here.

“ From Mom, Steve you never said goodbye. You were gone before I knew it, and God only knew why. A million times I needed you, a million times I cried. If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died. In life I loved you dearly my son. In death, I love you still. In my heart, you hold a place that no one could ever fill. It broke my heart to loose you my son but you didn't go alone for part of me went with you the day God took you home. Love Mom, you're forever in my heart. So many loved you, you will be missed by all.

“ I had the opportunity to meet Steve once at my home in Medina. He was so warm and friendly. He was a precious man that I prayed for numerous times with his mother. He was a huge blessing to his family! He had such perseverance. Thank you God for the many ways that Steve blessed our lives.

“ A friend like no other. I will always cherish our incredible 40 year friendship since we were little. I have always held those memories close and revisit them often. You and I were the brothers we never had growing up. From school, to sports, to cars, to teenage years, to adulthood and moreThank you for the lifetime of memories bud, I could write a novel here. Simply put, I miss and love you. Heaven gained a great one!! Rest easy. Everything is ok. Until we meet again dear friend! - David Yarmesch

“ While I didn't know Steve but I know his mother. I also know that he was courageous and that he endured more things than most of us well ever have to in this life. With his illness he fought many battles. Most certainly his family members and friends would tell you this:

"The truth is many of us know that the strongest people are not those who show strength in front of us but those who win battles we never see them fight." (unknown)
Steve was a strong man -- mentally, physically, emotionally, and spiritually.

May God comfort his dear children and each friend and family member that knew Steve. Even though his life was cut short, remember the gifts he shared with each one of you through who he was and what inspired him.

The streets of Heaven are paved with gold. Steven is walking them now -- he's in no pain, not worried about getting the virus, and he is healed. Hallelujah!

God Bless You!
